Crucial Principle: The requirement for Apostille or Consular Authentication is determined by the country where your HOME SCHOOL is located, not solely by student nationality.

If your country is eligible for an apostille, you must obtain an apostille without exception. Only applicants from countries where an apostille cannot be issued should obtain consular certification instead.

(Applicants with OECD nationalities: Apostille and sending it by post are not required at application stage to INHA University.; Certificate of Enrollment issued by home univ in English with CHECKLIST form signed by the coordinator is a MUST document though.)

• Applicants from China

Applicants from China: As a certificate of enrolment, a certification issued by the China Education Ministry's educational background and degree certification center is necessary. Sending it by post is mandatory.

- Certificate of Issuance Website: CHSI (学信网), https://www.chsi.com.cn

- Certificate should be valid until 28th of February 2027. On top of the certificate, date of expiry is written and it should satisfy this date.

- For applicants from China, please refer to the sample in the last page

(A consulate may request more detailed document (Apostille or etc) for visa later on even if Inha does not require at application stage.)
