Buddy program

Before coming to CWNU, they can directly contact International Affairs and Education office when students have any inquiries about exchange program. Yet, if any students who are interested in studying at Changwon National University want to learn more about real student life, they can always get some useful tips from International Students Council (ISC).

Students will get contact from their buddies two weeks before the semester starts. The main goals of this buddy program are 1) to help them understand our university and region better, 2) to help them have a taste of CWNU life before they get here, and 3) to help them choose the right destination for their study abroad.
