ACADEMIC LIFE AT HUFS

AVAILABLE COURSES

Exchange students can take diverse courses from different faculty if they meet the language and pre-requisite requirements. However, some restrictions do apply:

Restricted Courses for Exchange Students

1. Law School (MA level)
2. Department of Language & Diplomacy (BA level)
3. Department of Language & Trade (BA level)
4. Communicative Languages (BA level elective courses)
5. College of Education (This includes the Department of French Education/English Education/German Education/Chinese Education/Korean Education)
6. Interpretation and Translation (MA level)

Semi-Restricted Courses

Business Courses (BA level)
Course enrollment for the Business Department is very competitive university-wide. Exchange/Visiting students can enroll for the Business Courses midway during the second round of course enrollment ONLY. Hence there is no guarantee that students will be able to enroll for first choice courses. We advise students to bring backup plans in adherence to this.

It is the student's responsibility to make a backup plan (plan B) or find alternative courses when they make their course plan.*

TUITION FEE

Intensive Korean (200 hours): The Intensive Korean Program is a non-credit, certificate-only course offered by the Center for Korean Language and Culture. The program aims to help learners build the basic foundations to high level skills in the Korean language through a strict curriculum that focuses on the technical components and accuracy of the Korean language. It is divided into different levels and runs on a fixed schedule from Monday to Friday. Students are required to attend 40 days of the whole program, as well as pass the final language exam. · Fully waived for students majoring/minoring in Korean related /East-Asian studies during regular semester · Partially waived for students majoring in other fields · Tuition waiver IS NOT offered during the Summer and Winter break. Survival Korean (25 hours): Survival Korean is a non-credit, certificate-only course that acts as an excellent steppingstone into learning the Korean Language. It is an introductory level Korean language program that aims to help students build a strong foundation in learning the complexity of the Korean language whilst building familiarity with common language and topics. Fully waived for exchange students
